What's in a name

By William L. Trimyer
WHAT'S IN A NAME?
Lesson for September 19, 1982
Bible Study Passages: Genesis 32:9-12, 22-30
INTRODUCTION

What's in a name? This would be a natural question were we living in biblical times. Bible names tend to have some significant meaning attached to them. People today name their children with little or no thought to what meaning a name might imply. We tend to follow family tradition or names when labeling our offspring.

Particularly in the Old Testament we find names which represent a certain event or describe a certain character. Certain biblical names would often carry an important religious message.

When we hear certain names mentioned we right away get an image of someone's character or physical attribute. The name Sampson brings to mind strength and violence. The name Abraham conjures up the notion of faith and leadership. The name Zacchaeus brings to mind a person of small stature.

We tend to associate names with certain personal or physical attributes. This week we will focus upon a colorful character in the Old Testament by the name of Jacob. This Old Testament character underwent a dramatic change in his relaitonship to God resulting in a changed name. Jacob became known as Israel.

SIBLING RIVALRY (Genesis 27:41-46; 28;1-2)

The story of Jacob and Esau is as familiar to us as certain childhood stories. These twin brothers developed some intense rivalry for their parent's attention. The parents bought into their manipulation and bids for attention, which eventually led to a sharp division between the two brothers. The rivalry was so intense that Jacob left home after duping his brother Esau out of his birthright.

The name Jacob literally means "trickster," which is a fitting name for someone who went around tripping other people. When Jacob tricked his brother out of his inheritance, Esau vowed that he would kill his brother Jacob. When Jacob left home to escape Esau's anger, little did the family know that he would be gone for good.

CONFRONTED BY GOD (Genesis 28:10-22)

Little did Jacob know that his journey from home would end in such a dramatic fashion. It's hard to imagine that such a scoundrel would turn out to be God's leader for the people of Israel.

God came to Jacob in a dream his first night away from home. In this dream God introduced himself as the God of Abraham and of his father Isaac. In this dream encounter God also reviewed the covenant promises. But Jacob would spend a few years living with his Uncle Laban, working to win his lovely daughter for his wife.

THE BROTHERS MEET AGAIN (Genesis 32:9-12)

Jacob never assumed that Esau had forgotten the dirty underhanded trick of defrauding him of his birthright. He knew that Esau had "blood in his eye." Of course, Jacob was right. Esau had not forgotten. When Esau came after his brother, he came with an army of four hundred men.

Jacob is a changed man, however. Instead of running he decides to face the medicine he had coming to him. Rather than running Jacob turns to prayer. Jacob prays for deliverance from the violence his brother intended. And in addition to his prayer, Jacob vows to share his wealth with his brother.

JACOB WRESTLES WITH HIMSELF (Genesis 32:22-30)

At the river Jabbok Jacob had it out with himself. God confronts him in the form of a mysterious wrestler who struggled with Jacob till dawn. At the end of the struggle Jacob knew he was in a personal confr o ntation with God. But out of this struggle Jacob received the blessing of God in the form of a new name, Israel.

Jacob became a changed man who learned that trickery was not a way to go through life. He also learned what it meant to be forgiven.

Letter

Thanks expressed

Dear Editor:

Just a note to thank everyone involved who helped make last weekend's old-fashioned homecoming at Reedy Springs Baptist Church such a success.

Thanks to our pastor, the Rev. Jim Kerr, and to all those who provided the special singing and fine fellowship.

With more than 250 registered during the day, it was a great success.

Sincerely,
Gladys Reynolds

Rev. Charles R. Addington
Guest Speaker

We urge all members to be present and extend a cordial invitaiton to former members and the public.

Rev. Charles R. Addington, Director of Admission and Financial aid, and Associate Professor of Behavioral Science at Bluefield College, will bring the 11:00 a.m. message during the Homecoming Services of New Hope Baptist Church. He holds degrees from Bluefield College, Carson Newman College, Southern Baptist Theological Seminary and Appalachian State University.

Rev. Addington pastored New Hope and Liberty Chapel from 1954-1958. He has also pastored Bethany Baptist in Calloo, Va. and Memorial Baptist in Bluefield.

Rev. Addington is married to Betty Jane Collins and has a son and two daughters: Rebecca Addington of Bluefield, Mrs. Martha Oblinger of Dryden and Charles Addington, Jr. of Bluefield.

It is our privilege to have Rev. Addington with us during this very significant occasion and we hope you will make plans to be a part of this time of FELLOWSHIP, FUN, FROLIC, FEASTING, and FESTIVITIES; not only that, but we plan to have a real good time in the Lord. Rev. Bob Williams is pastor of New Hope Church, located six miles east of Appomattox on Highway 24.

(Proverbs 3:5-7)

Homecoming set at New Hope

Sunday, September 12, is Homecoming Day at New Hope Baptist Church, the Reverend Bob Williams, pastor.

"We cordially invite you to Sunday School Services beginning at 10 a.m. which will mark the beginning of our Homecoming Day Services," said Carroll Goodrich, Director of Sunday School for the church. "It is our goal to have 263 in Sunday School on the 19th as part of our Homecoming Emphasis," he added.

Guest speaker at the 11 o'clock worship service will be the Reverend Charles Addington, Director of Admission and Financial Aid and Associate Professor of Behavioral Science at Bluefield College. He pastored New Hope and Liberty Chapel Baptist Churches from 1954 until 1958.

Following lunch at the church, there will be a Gospel Sing in the sanctuary of the church beginning at 2 p.m.

A cordial invitation is extended to members, former members, friends and their families to be a part of the Homecoming Service on Sunday, Sept. 19 at New Hope Baptist Church.

Homecoming set

Memorial United Methodist Church will celebrate homecoming on Sunday, September 19 at the 11 a.m. worship service.

Former members and friends a i relatives of members are invited to share in our worship and fellowship. There will be a covered-dish lunch immediately following the worship service.

Notestein accepted

Midshipman Timothy Dwight Notestein of Rt. 2, Box 264, Appomattox, participated in Acceptance Day ceremonies at the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy in Kings Port, N.Y., September 11.

The colorful event annually marks the official "acceptance" of the freshman, or plebe, class into the ranks of the Academy's regiment of midshipmen.

A graduate of Appomattox County High School, Midshipman Notestein, with more than 300 plebes, was administered the Academy oath by Rear Admiral Thomas A. King, the superintendent. They were later sworn in as U.S. Naval Reserve midshipmen.

The plebe class reported in July to the Academy, which is operated by the Maritime Administration of the U.S. Department of Transportation, for training as future merchant marine officers. Their initial two months were spent in military training and in taking introductory courses.

Mrs. Turnes gets big surprise

Mrs. O. Russell Turnes was honored with a surprise luncheon on Saturday, September 4, in honor of her 85th birthday. Hosts and hostesses for the party were her daughters and sons-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Richey Jobe and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Waverly Brown, in whose home the party was held in Amherst.

A color scheme of purple and lavender was carried out in decorations, flower arrangements, birth d a y cake, and the honoree's corsage.

Present in addition to the honoree, the hosts and hostesses were the following nieces and nephews of Mrs. Turnes: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Perrow of Concord, Mrs. Frank Hubbard of Richmond, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Turnes and Mrs. Gordon Monk of Hopewell, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Justice of Petersburg, Mrs. Ed Payne of Chase City, Richard O. Puckett of Virgilina, Mr. and Mrs. Raynard Turnes of Rustburg, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Scott Bryant of Cullen, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Robinson, Mrs. Harry G. Johnson, Mrs. James Carson, Mr. and Mrs. Wellington Conner, Mr. and Mrs. Evrod Conner, Mrs. Frank Hanenkrat, Mrs. Sam Ferguson, and Mrs. James Conner, all of Appomattox, and Mrs. Clarence Cole of Lynchburg.

Also the following grandchildren and great-grandchildren: Mrs. Michael Davidson, Waverly Brooke, Leigh Ann, and Carey Davidson of Faber; Mrs. Mary Jobe and Beth Jobe, of Lynchburg; Mr. and Mrs. William H. Jobe, Doug and Chris Jobe; Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Brown, Travis and Erin Brown; Mr. and Mrs. Dennis T. Brown and Jason, all of Amherst.

A beautiful two-tier birthday cake was cut and served with ice cream during the afternoon after Mrs. Turnes was presented a large assortment of birthday gifts.

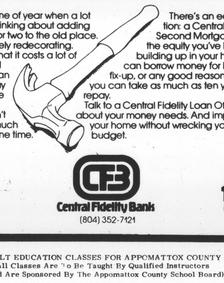
A SECOND MORTGAGE.
Home improvement without wrecking your budget.



This is the time of year when a lot of us start thinking about adding on a room or two to the old place. Or completely redecorating. Problem is that it costs a lot of money. And while you can afford to pay for it over the long haul, you just don't have that much money at one time.

There's an easy solution: a Central Fidelity Second Mortgage. With the equity you've been building up in your home you can borrow money for home fix-up, or any good reason. And you can take as much as ten years to repay. Talk to a Central Fidelity Loan Officer about your money needs. And improve your home without wrecking your budget.
